4.3 Memo

- Draft Memo shared with the committee via drop box
- Initial draft based on results from Qualtrics survey, reference Default Report
  - Stated priorities align with goals 2, 3, and 4: Commitment to Student Success and Completion, Commitment to Faculty and Staff Diversity and Success, and Commitment to our Learning Environment and Legacy, respectively
  - Some consideration was given to including the topic of COVID-19 in the memo
- Mallicoat observed that May Revise may present a different budget from the budget presented by the Governor in January
  - Does it make sense to plan for reduced support from the State?
  - How do we factor supplementary support from Federal Programs? (CARES Act)
    - Provost Oliver shared that CSU Presidents plan to meet Monday, April 13 to plan for how to allocate, deploy CARES Act funding specifically designated for institutional support
    - Provost Oliver also shared that the budget enhancement for 2020-21 of $199 million not expected to be in the May revise
  - Chair Mickey shared that he spoke with VP Kim, and he hopes to update the committee with additional information shortly
    - Possible presentation from VP Kim
  - Aguilar shared with committee link from Department of Education enumerating total support amounts from the CARES Act by institution
    - Allocations for Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act
- Zarate inquired whether the overall budget context for the CSU should drive the choices made by PRBC regarding memo priorities
  - Recognized that overall funding may be less than what was anticipated in January
- Chair Mickey shared that PRBC budget memo priorities have remained consistent over the past 5 years
  - Also noted the increased attention to supporting student mental health within the past two years
- Chair Mickey noted the uncertainty around potential additional spending around COVID-19 and the concurrent diminishment of revenues
  - Unlikely to get clarity on these impacts before May 1
- Aguilar observed that he expects there to be increased needed support for student mental health in the near term
  - Chair Mickey offered to re-organize the memo to make student mental health/student success the first priority discussed
- General agreement from the committee
- Chair Mickey inquired whether it would be beneficial to prioritize enumerated policies within each goal, or if all policies within each goal are to have equal weight
  - Zarate observed that in a budget cut scenario, it would be strategic to designate funding priorities
  - Mallicoat supported adding priorities
- Chair Mickey asked if student mental health can be listed as the first priority within the goal of Student Success
  - General agreement from the committee
- Mallicoat proposed expanding the scope to make mental health of the entire campus community a priority (students, faculty, and staff)
  - Chair Mickey offered to add support for faculty and staff mental health within the Faculty and Staff Success goal
  - Yong, Kim-Goh and Seung voiced support of Chair Mickey’s proposal
- Mallicoat proposed promoting Basic Needs over GI 2025 within the body of the PRBC memo
  - General agreement to re-order Basic Needs ahead of GI 2025
- There was a general question on the nature of GI 2025 funding (one-time vs. base)
  - Provost Oliver clarified that the GI 2025 program funded from both one-time and base sources
  - No expectation of additional GI 2025 funding
- Provost Oliver proposed keeping GI 2025 in the PRBC memo
- Kim-Goh proposed adding support for distance learning within the statement of support for reinvesting in instructional and support infrastructure
- Chair Mickey proposed adding Online Education and Training (OET) program within the statement of support for reinvesting in instructional and support infrastructure
- Hidalgo proposed expanding the scope of instruction and support infrastructure to explicitly include both physical and virtual (online) classrooms
  - Language to be reviewed and re-visited next meeting
  - VP Le Grande observed that the term “virtual” preferred to “online”, the term online may have unhelpful connotations
- Chair Mickey proposed language to signal support for essential faculty hiring
  - Observed that the Chancellor’s Office announced a hiring chill
  - Provost Oliver agreed that there should be continued support for essential faculty hiring
  - Chair Mickey proposed similar language for staff hiring
  - General agreement with the language around essential hiring
- Rommel proposed language around a specific Learning Management System be broadened to incorporate an overall strategic commitment to supporting policies and tools that facilitate virtual teaching and providing virtual operational support where possible and practical
- Chair Mickey proposed the time until the next PRBC meeting, April 24th be designated for public comment and review of the draft PRBC memo
o Provost Oliver proposed the shared document be open for comments, but closed for edits to text, pending discussion and review
o Chair Mickey updated the shared document to provide comment only access
